NOT A RIOT.

THE THORNTON LYNCHING IN ARKANSAS.

Unfounded Rumors of Riot and Bloodshed Sent Out—All Quiet
in the Town.

MORRILLTON, Ark., April 20.—
The rumors of riot and possible
wholesale fighting here are entirely unfounded.

Last night an alarm was raised and the rumor circulated that the friends of Thornton, who was hanged by a mob night before last,
had gathered about fifteen miles from this place under arms and would march against the town.

Poses were at once organized and armed to resist any attack and in the excitement Sheriff White was accidentally shot.

An investigation showed that the loud noise that had occasioned the alarm at midnight proceeded from a gang of negroes who were engaged in unloading a lot of ties and was in no wise connected with the Thornton hanging.

All is quite here to-day and no serious trouble is anticipated.

HANGED BY A MOB.

A Negro Convicted of Attempted Murder Taken From a Sheriff and Hanged.

SALINA, Kas. April 21.—Dan
Adams, a negro who was yesterday convicted of felonious assault and sentenced to seven years in the penitentiary, was taken from the sheriff by a mob last night and hanged.

The sheriff had started to take Adams to the penitentiary when a mob of fifty men entered the car, seized the prisoner and placed a rope around his neck. The doomed man was then hurried to a convenient telegraph pole, the rope thrown over a cross-piece and the prisoner jerked into the air. Life was extinct in a few moments.

The crime for which Adams suffered death at the hands of the mob was that of murderous assault upon Troy Short, night freight agent at this place.

THE COLD WAVE.

The Fruit Crop Seriously Injured
in Many Sections.

St. Louis, April 21.—The latest reports indicate serious damage to fruit in many sections from the late cold wave.

Advices from Minnesota report
snow three feet deep and that serious floods are feared. Farm work will be delayed at least ten days.

Iowa reports severe snow and wind storms and great damage to fruit. In some sections of that state the trees are covered with ice.

Peoria, Bloomington and other points in Illinois report great damage
from the wind and cold wave.

Even Texas reports damage,
with ice an eighth of an inch thick
at San Angelo.

THE TROUBLE ENDED.

The Strike on the Union Pacific Railroad Settled.

OMAHA, Neb., April 21.—The executive committee of the striking shopmen and representatives of the Union Pacific have come to an agreement and the strike on that road will end this afternoon.

Signed the Bill.

Special to the DEMOCRAT.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., April 21.
—Gov. Stone to-day signed House
Bill No. 606, in relation to Bond Investment Companies and companies issuing certificates and debentures
on the monthly installment plan.

MORE IMPROVEMENTS.

The Citizens' National Bank to be Remodeled at Once.

Samuel Stahl and Edward Hurley to-day began work preliminary to remodeling the Citizens' National bank, at Main and Ohio streets, and converting it into one of the handsomest banking houses in the city.

The five windows on the west side of the building are to be lowered twelve inches and widened eighteen inches, after which plate glass 6x7 1/2 inches will be put in, with transoms over each—an improvement that will add much to the beauty of the structure.

The front entrance will also be remodeled, and granitoid steps put down, with beautiful tiling extending from the steps into the building. Plate glass will add further beauty to the front doors, which will be set off with side lights. The bank will be newly painted inside and out, and Messrs. Keck & Dickman have been given an order for new furniture throughout. Verily, Sedalia does hum this spring.

Col. Bain to-night.

The Closing Institute.

The final meeting of the City
Teachers' Institute for the present year will be held at the parlors of the Y. M. C. A. on to-morrow morning, beginning at 9 o'clock. Rev.
J. Ross Stevenson will deliver a lecture upon "The Puritans in America," which will doubtless be most interesting. A fine literary and musical program has been prepared. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

Bain at M. E. church.

Mrs. Highleyman Married.

Information was received here
to-day of the marriage of Mrs.
Laura A. Highleyman, the divorced wife of Sam L. Highleyman, tax commissioner of the Missouri Pacific railway company. She was married on April 13, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Potter, in Des Moines, Iowa, to Dr. Minor Morris, of Indianapolis, Ind.

Seventh streets.

contract for building the Missouri River and Tidewater railway, will have an office in Mayor Stevens'
new block on West Third street.

The Fruit Crop.

There is a division of opinion as to whether or not the fruit crop was injured by the late cold snap, and it will probably take a day or two to settle the question definitely.
One farmer seen to-day said he felt certain that the buds on his trees had not been damaged, but two or three town people talked with think last night's cold killed both peaches
and apples in this section.

Burial of Mrs. Shepherd.

The funeral of Mrs. C. C. Shepherd, who died of consumption at her home on West Main street, took place at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Chicken Thief Released.

Bill Bybee, colored, the great American chicken thief, was released from jail to-day, after having been incarcerated since July 18, last. To the owners of fowls:
Padlocks are in order.

Fined For Vagrancy.

Albert Taylor, who was arrested
as a suspect who committed a recent robbery at Nevada, Mo., in which a gold watch was lost, was taken before Justice Henry C. Lev-ens this morning on the charge of vagrancy, there not being sufficient evidence to hold him on the other charge. He was fined $20 and costs and sent to jail.

A VIOLENT DEATH.

HENRY A. FELLOWS FOUND DEAD IN A ROAD.

The Accident Took Place in Massachusetts—A Resident of Windsor.

Details of the sad and unfortunate death of Henry A. Fellows, of Windsor, Mo., which took place at East Charlemont, Mass., last Tuesday, were received in this city today.

Sixty days ago Mr. Fellows entered the employ of J. A. Fuels, the well-known United States mail contractor of this city. He was immediately sent to Massachusetts to sub-let a number of contracts which Mr. Fuels had in that state. He was progressing nicely with his work, when Mr. Fuels was surprised and pained beyond measure to receive a message stating that Mr. Fellows had been killed.

To-day a letter was received from
Mr. E. T. Packard, of East Charlemont, Mass., with whom Mr. Fellows had closed a contract for carrying the mail. It stated that on the afternoon of April 18th Mr. Fellows started to visit a gentleman living a number of miles distant from Mr.
Packard's home. There was no hotel at his destination and he accepted Mr. Packard's invitation to return and accept his hospitality
during the night. About an hour after Mr. Fellows' departure Mr.
Packard was surprised to see the horse come dashing into the barnyard with nothing but broken fragments of the harness attached. He immediately hitched up his team and started in search of the absent driver. A few miles away, at the bottom of a steep hill, the overturned and badly damaged buggy was found. A few yards further on was found the body of Mr.
Fellows. Life was wholly extinct, but there were no bruises upon his body. It is supposed that his neck was instantly broken when he fell. The horse was a gentle

It was also decided that in the fusitions as teachers that they are competent to a certain degree in the teaching of vocal music.

Mr. Hughes then led Mr. Longan

order of some one at the court

RELIABLE AND NEWSY!

THE DAILY DEMOCRAT.

THE DEMOCRAT circulation boom goes right along, regardless of wind and weather.

THE work on the north and south railroad begins at Springfield today. But for the "hitch" in the right of way it would have commenced here on last Monday.

It is the discriminations of the treasury department as much as the unwise action of congress that has "depreciated" silver, or more properly speaking has enhanced the value of gold.

THE north and south road means a great deal to Sedalia, and as soon as work is begun at this end of the line in good earnest you will see an activity in all lines of business that even Sedalia has not known for years.

SENATOR COCKRELL is generally right on all public questions, and he is most emphatically so when he denounces the conspiracy which the goldbugs have organized to prevent the coinage silver and its use as money.

ADVICES from London announce the failure of the Australian Joint Stock bank with liabilities reaching $65,000,000. The deposits amount to $55,000,000. The failure will cause the collapse of the bank's two hundred branches.

A YOUNG sporting man at Higginsville was in the habit of inviting his friends to his room and entertaining them with a game of draw poker. Finally he was indicted and convicted of keeping a common gambling house and the court of appeals has just affirmed the action of the criminal court.

BEYOND a question of doubt a western man will receive the democratic nomination for president in 1896, says the Lamar Democrat, and while it is too early for presidential booms, we predict that our governor will be the most prominent of the western candidates and will be first under the wire.

THE Pittsburg people seem to have "caught on" to the doctrine that the way to secure the repeal of an objectionable law is to enforce it, says the Detroit Free Press. They have begun prosecutions against street car employees, funeral directors, drivers of funeral coaches and furnacemen, charging them with violation of the Sunday law in work on that day; and unless the courts reverse the decision made in the first Sunday law cases, the defendants named will be convicted and punished. The inevitable result will be a repeal of the Sunday law. Those who are most earnest in demanding its enforcement against others will find the law obnoxious when it is applied to what they are in the habit of doing themselves or when it threatens to interfere with any of their comforts or conveniences.

RECENTLY a southern senator called upon President Cleveland, says an exchange, when the following conversation took place: "We are now in the majority in both ends of the capitol," said he to the president. "Suppose that a majority of representatives of the people of this country pass a silver bill, will you veto it?" "I shall veto no bill," replied the president, "unless there are constitutional reasons for doing so." "There can be no constitutional ground for vetoing a silver bill," the senator urged. "A bill against which there are no constitutional grounds," replied the president, "will become a law, either with or without my signature. I shall not veto it."

THE last weekly report of the Missouri Pacific Railroad company, says the Republic, does not indicate that the business of the road is falling off as reported by a stock broker. The receipts of the company amounted during the second week of this month to $449,000, or $33,000 more than its receipts during the second week of April last year. The increase last month over the receipts of March, 1892, was $78,302, or more than was reported by any other road west of the Mississippi river for the same time. Nearly all the St. Louis roads, in fact, are doing a big business now and have been all spring.

THE owners of property along several of the streets which it is proposed to pave are getting up remonstrances. This does not mean that they are opposed to street improvement, but that they want the paving to correspond in cost with the value of the property. If the council will have specifications and estimates made showing that a street can be paved to the city limits at a cost that shall be only a reasonable tax upon the property so improved, many if not all of those who have signed the remonstrances will be glad to see the work go on.

SENATOR VEST is quoted in an interview with the Kansas City Times' Washington correspondent as strongly favoring a change of policy as regards the payment of the Sherman bullion notes, and their redemption hereafter with silver coin instead of gold.

THE latest Kansas scandal is the charge made by the secretary of state that Railroad Commissioner Mitchell accepted a bribe of $15,000 from a Kansas City railroad man.

Gov. STONE has signed what is known as the "Local option road law," one of the measures asked for by the road convention which met in this city last winter.

TENNESSEE has another convict war on her hands, and troops have been sent to the scene of the riot. The lease system as practiced in Tennessee is a costly one.

KANSAS comes to the front with another lynching. The man hanged was a negro and was guilty only of assault with intent to kill and had been tried and convicted.

MRS. ALMIRA HANCOCK, widow of the late General Winfield Scott Hancock, died at her home in New York yesterday afternoon.

IOWA and Minnesota both report snow three feet deep, and Omaha reports the mercury down nearly to zero.

The Walls are Safe.

The excavation being made for the new Smith & Cotton building is now said to be in a condition to no longer endanger the safety of the walls of adjoining buildings. Contractors Hurley & Dean were much alarmed during the heavy rains, but are now smiling again.

Back at His Desk.

Fred Hartshorn has resumed work in the office of Circuit Clerk Fowler, after a layoff of several days' duration. "Elder" Marvin and Fred make a team that Clerk Fowler can bank on every day in the year.

AMUSEMENTS.

John Dillon's new comedy, "A Model Husband," which will be seen at the Opera House to-night, has created quite a sensation throughout the west this season and is described as a cyclonic hurricane of flirtations, love and elopements, shedding new light upon that interesting problem, "Is Marriage a Failure."

"The Fire Patrol."

"The Fire Patrol," coming to the Opera House Saturday night, is a five-act melodrama by James W. Harkins, Jr., author of "The Midnight Alarm," and introduces a fire patrol wagon and horses and what is said to be a correct representation of the interior of a gold stamp mill in Deadwood, with the ore crushers in full operation. The play has met with considerable success in New York City, where it was produced for three weeks early in the season.

Peter Jackson as "Uncle Tom."

The great attraction of the theatrical world is Stockwell's Spectacular Uncle Tom's Cabin, which is to appear in this city on Monday evening next, with Peter Jackson, the world-renowned champion of England and Australia, in the role of Uncle Tom. This introduces the great champion for the first time in this city on the stage as an actor; before his appearance in this city he has been successful and will certainly make a hit when he makes his bow before our theatre-goers here. Chas. E. (Parson) Davies, manager of Peter Jackson, interprets the character of the auctioneer; he, too, has astonished his friends with the manner in which he handles his part, with ease and earnestness. The balance of the company is made up from the Stockwell home theatre, San Francisco, and is a powerful one.

Greatly Surprised.

My wife was confined to her bed for over two months with a very severe attack of rheumatism. We could get nothing that would afford her any relief, and as a last resort gave Chamberlain's Pain Balm a trial. To our great surprise she began to improve after the first application, and by using it regularly she was soon able to get up and attend to her house work. E. H. Johnson, of C. J. ### RINGLING BROTHERS COMING.

This Big Show to Exhibit in Sedalia Thursday, May 25.

Ringling Brothers' World's Greatest Shows are coming to Sedalia Thursday, May 25. This big show has made marvelous strides in the past few years, and there is now no amusement enterprise in America that receives so large a share of public attention. Here in Missouri the remarkable rise of the Ringling Brothers' show from a small and comparatively insignificant exhibition, to the largest legitimate circus, menagerie and hippodrome in America, has been watched with neighborly interest. The show has never exhibited in Sedalia, but it is safe to say that there is hardly anyone in the city who has not heard of its name and fame, and its advent here will certainly be welcomed.

The Ringling Brothers' exhibition is a colossal affair. The mere fact that the main hippodrome pavilion will seat over 10,000 people is sufficient to prove that fact. The performance is in keeping with the vast proportions of the enterprise. Among the great artists are Charles W. Fish, the famous rider; the gifted Reno sisters, a tribe of Arabs, a troupe of Japanese, and over one hundred other performers. A striking novelty is a marvelous equine ballet, in which one hundred horses go, through a remarkable performance. The menagerie is exceptionally large, the hippodrome races are exciting and the parade that ushers in circus day is notable for its length and brilliancy.

A Fine Lunch

With the great Anheuser-Busch Buck Beer to-morrow at Hotel Kaiser bar.

The Duke Broke.

Frank Barnett, of the secret service department of the Missouri Pacific, returned this morning from a trip to Butler and other points in that vicinity. He reports that the rain of Wednesday and Thursday was very heavy in that locality, and in consequence a quarter of a mile of the four mile dyke constructed the past year on land owned by G. G. Green, of New Jersey, and managed by Hon. J. H. Bothwell, in Bates county, was washed out yesterday, flooding the tract and causing large damage.

Bottled Buck Beer

At the Hotel Kaiser bar to-morrow, together with an elegant lunch.

Spring Garden "Sass."

To-day is too cold to talk about greens and cucumbers, but the markets, nevertheless, are well supplied with the delicacies of spring. A visit to the markets found the following articles and prices:

"New tomatoes, 5c. each; spinach, 3c. per gallon; eggs, 15c. per dozen; tomato plants, 15c. per doz.; new beets, 10c. per bunch; new potatoes, 10c. per quart; radishes, 3 bunches for 10c.; cucumbers, 10c. to 15c. each; soup bunches, 5c.; cabbage, 5c. per pound; old sweet potatoes, 50c. a peck; old Irish potatoes, $1.15 per bushel; old onions, 40c. per peck; Texas strawberries, 25c. a box.

Will Organize a Lodge.

A meeting will be held at Odd Fellows' hall, next Monday night, when Miss Bina M. West, of Port Huron, Michigan, grand record keeper of the Lady Maccabees, will organize a local lodge of the order as an auxiliary to the Knights of Maccabees.

The People Demand It.

"When a railroad company accepts payment for tickets," said a gentleman to-day, "it morally obligates itself to transport passengers with the least possible danger to limb and health. The platform at the union depot in this city is in a condition that should be remedied at once. It is a nuisance. At a small outlay the railway company could either raise or incline the platform and allow the lakes of water that collect during every rain to flow away. I have seen weak and timid ladies step from warm coaches and plunge ankle deep into the water. The railway companies should meet the requirements of the people."

Incline the platform.

CHARLIE IS CLIMBING.

A Former Sedalia Who Has Won an Honored Title.

Charles W. Walters, a former resident of Sedalia, at which time he held the responsible position of route agent for the Pacific Express Co., has risen rapidly since his removal to Denver, a couple of years ago.

He left here to accept a clerkship in the office of the Denver and Rio Grande Express Co. at Denver, and promotion followed promotion until he is now the assistant general manager of the company, as the DEMOCRAT learns from a late copy of the Denver Times.

At the banquet tendered General Manager Kramer, last week, Mr. Walters was one of the honored speakers, and his remarks were printed verbatim by the press of Denver, so complimentary and appropriate were they to the occasion.

While a resident of Sedalia Mr. Walters had the reputation of being one of the brightest and ablest express officials in the entire west, and the prediction was made that he would rapidly forge to the front in the far west. That he has not disappointed his friends is shown by his several promotions, and the DEMOCRAT extends its best wishes for continued success.

Police Court.

Officer James Englebrecht won his first spurs yesterday as a new member of the Sedalia police force. Andy Smith, a bibulous tailor, upon whose anamory water had no more effect than upon a duck's back, fell within Jim's territory and was promptly escorted to the calaboose. Judge Rauck fined Andy $5 this morning.

Frank Mason was arrested by Officer John Scally for vagrancy. After hearing all the evidence in the case Judge Rauck dismissed the defendant.

A Soap Suspension Bridge.

One of the most artistic and imposing window decorations ever seen in the city is the suspension bridge of castle soap in the large show window of Chas. E. Messerly on Second and Osage. Its builder is an engineer of no small ability.

Do You Waltz?

If not, I will guarantee to teach you the waltz and reverse in thirty minutes. Lesson $1.00, given at any hour at your home or at hotel. Call or address Prof. Parke, Hotel Riley.

A Fine out Fire.

The burning out of a flue at the residence of John Shoemaker, No. 1003 East Sixth street, this forenoon, caused the alarm of fire to be turned in, and both companies responded promptly, but their services were not required to extinguish the blaze.

Cut at the Hotel

M. R. & T. R. R.

IT MEANS MISSOURI RIVER AND TIDEWATER RAILWAY.

THE CHANGE OF A NAME.

The Springfield, Sedalia, Marshall and Northern is Now a Thing of the Past.

President O. A. Crandall, Contractor J. B. Quigley and Directors R. H. Moses and W. L. Porter returned last night from Springfield, where, Wednesday, they attended a stockholders' meeting of the Springfield, Sedalia, Marshall and Northern railway and changed the name of the company to Missouri River and Tidewater Railway Co. Mr. Quigley was seen at his office this morning, and when asked the object of changing the name of the road said:

"The original name was simply local and was intended to boom several towns along the proposed line. It accomplished its purpose, but when we were ready to begin work it was thought best to adopt a new name, and that of Missouri River and Tidewater was chosen by a resolution adopted unanimously by the stockholders.

"The word 'Tidewater' is valuable, and it means much for the company. It virtually says that a road is to be constructed from the Missouri river on the north to the Gulf of Mexico on the south, and that is just what we propose to do.

"The change of name does not mean that a new charter will have to be obtained or right of way again secured. Everything that was granted to the old S., S., M. & N. accrues to the new company, and it is responsible for all debts contracted by the old one. For instance, if the S., S., M. & N. owes you anything, you can bring suit against it and get a judgment against the Missouri River and Tidewater."

"How did you find the people of Springfield on the proposition to change the name of the road?" asked the reporter.

"Oh, they fell into line promptly, as they realized the value of the word 'Tidewater.' Springfield had no right to object to anything, as they had failed to come to the front in securing the right of way or comply with their agreements in other particulars. They made big promises in mass meetings, but no one was individually responsible and nothing was done according to previous agreement.

"Springfield originally agreed to subscribe $100,000 toward the construction of the road and also to furnish the right of way and terminal facilities. The $100,000 was cut down to $75,000, and then the city's representatives wanted $10,000 additional chopped off in order that they might use it in purchasing right of way.

"We would not concede this. I offered to purchase the right of way so that work might be commenced if they would enter into a bond to reimburse me when the road was in operation between Sedalia and Springfield, but the proposition was declined."

"Now that the meeting has been held, and the underbrush cleared away, when do you expect to begin work, Mr. Quigley?"

"They began breaking ground at Springfield to-day, I guess—at least such was the intention when the Sedalia delegation left for home."

"Are you doing the work—or men under you, rather?"

"No, sir. I do not propose to do anything until the right of way is secured. When that is settled I will have men, teams and money on the ground to push operations."

"How about breaking ground at this end of the line?"

"As soon as the hitch in regard to running through Judge Baker's property is settled I am prepared to take hold and rush the work."

"And when is that likely to occur?"

"I cannot tell you, but within the next few days, I hope."

The stockholders at the meeting on Wednesday re-elected the old board of directors and also the old officers, as follows: President, O. A. Crandall, of Sedalia; vice-president, W. M. Walker, of Marshall; secretary, G. A. C. Wooley, of Springfield; treasurer, W. D. Sheppard, of Springfield; directors, G. A. C. Wooley, J. B. Ross, G. A. Ramsey, W. D. Sheppard, J. E. Kenton and X. Hawkins, of Springfield; W. Smithpeter, of Buffalo; O. A. Crandall, R. H. Moses and W. L. Porter, of Sedalia; W. M. Walker and Percy Houston, of Marshall, and Isaac Myer, of Miami.

Locating a Water Tank.

The Nevada Post, in speaking of a visit from General Manager Geo C. Smith, accompanied by Supt. H. G. Clark and Division Superintendent Mead Stillwell, is curious to know whether their personal inspection of a certain tract of land means a new depot, etc., for Nevada. A visit to company headquarters this morning elicited the information that no such improvements were known to be under headway. It is known, however, that the Missouri Pacific intends to build a water tank immediately southwest of the present M., K. & T. tank and that the ground was gone over by the officials.

A Hard Wind.

"Pshaw, you don't know what a hard wind is," said Switchman Sam Black to-day. "I worked in Kansas once and remember that an east bound train got to the end of its division two hours ahead of time one night—the wind blew so hard that the engineer couldn't slow up, even with the back motion."

DIDN'T KNOW IRA.

The Experience of a Sedalia Mule Buyer at Appleton City Some Time Ago.

"Years ago when I used to go away on a mule buying trip," said Ira Hinsdale to a DEMOCRAT reporter, "I always carried a grip filled with ready cash to pay for my purchases, and I was scared half to death from the time that I left home until I returned. Now, however, it is different, for I pay with checks for every animal that I buy, and if a man was to hold me up and rob me he wouldn't get more than two bits."

"I'll never forget a little experience I had at Appleton City some time ago," continued Mr. Hinsdale, after he had lighted a fresh cigar furnished by the reporter. "I had purchased a span of mules and gave a check in payment for them."

"The farmer hastened to the bank and presented the check, but the cashier declined to cash it, saying that he didn't know me from Adam. I got hot when the farmer sought me and complained, but didn't say much. I lost no time in getting to the bank, however, when I threw down a dollar and asked the cashier to spend it in telegraphing to Sedalia and inquiring of the First National bank as to whether I was all right. He did so, and the reply must have been satisfactory, I guess, for the check was paid, and the cashier informed me that I could exchange them to the amount of $10,000 if I wanted to."

SCARED THE HOTEL GUESTS.

A Four-Footed Midnight Prowler Caused a Commotion in Arizona.

The Montezuma hotel has a first-rate crowd of guests, and the Tombstone Prospector says they will vouch for the correctness of this tale. On Christmas morning about 3 o'clock a noise was heard at the foot of a flight of stairs on the ground floor. It sounded as though a half dozen intoxicated celebrators of our Saviour's birthday were "rolling home in the morning, boys." It took them fully fifteen minutes to get up the first flight. Their passage through the long hall at the top was tedious. They evidently stopped to rest before tackling the next stairs, which run to the third floor and which are winding in their ascent and more difficult to mount. After resting fifteen minutes or so the last effort to reach home base was begun. The noise was terrific; men swore and women muttered imprecations upon the heads of their supposed husbands who were returning from the banquet. Every occupant of the house wondered why some other fellow did not go to the rescue of the unfortunate. At last the top was reached and silence reigned. One lady whose husband had been due for several hours knew that he must be among the number and the poor fellow, overcome by his exertions, had fallen asleep at the end of the hall in front of his bedroom door. She had compassion on him. She would open the door, drag him in and put him to bed. The halls were brilliantly lighted by electric lights. She opened the door and almost simultaneously uttered a piercing scream that startled every man, woman and child in the house, who hurriedly half-dressed and started for the scene of tragedy. Doors opened cautiously at first; a giggle was heard here and there which broadened into a roar of laughter, for there at the end of the hall, with her head out of an open window, stood a cow chewing her cud as contentedly as though she were in the middle of a salt river alfalfa field. The animal had without assistance and unknown to anyone reached this eminence of her own free will. The animal was a strange one to the proprietor of the house, but it is safe to say that her photograph is ingrafted on the memories of the guests of that house for all time to come. The cow was with difficulty started on her downward course and reached terra firma as easily as though she had been a circus cow all her life.
